ORDER MODIFYING JUDGMENT IN NON-JURY TRIAL FOR COURT ORDERED EXTENDED MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR OUTPATIENT SERVICES

On _____ the motion to modify Judgment for Court Ordered Extended Mental Health Services in the above numbered and entitled cause came on to be considered, alleging that _____, Patient herein, is no longer in need of inpatient treatment and requesting an order for mental health services on an outpatient basis for the pendency of the period of commitment.

The Court finds that on _____ the patient was ordered into treatment on an inpatient basis for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months, which period expires on _____. The Court further finds that the Patient continues to meet the criteria for court-ordered services however that inpatient treatment is no longer the least restrictive alternative for treatment.

The Court orders that Court-Ordered Extended Mental Health Services for the Patient shall be on an outpatient basis for the balance of the period of commitment, or until _____. It is further ORDERED that the Patient submit to treatment as recommended by _____. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, in the event Patient should fail to comply with outpatient treatment and/or medication, a representative of _____ shall contact the County Attorney's office, who shall prepare an order for the apprehension and detention of the Patient, who shall submit to inpatient treatment as recommended by _____ for the balance of the twelve (12) month period herein. In this regard the Patient is ORDERED to attend status/compliance hearings on the following dates and times: _____. The purpose of the hearings is to monitor the patients compliance with the treatment plan.

NOTICE TO PATIENT
